

Member of the Associated Press

THE DAILY SENTINEL

Sitka Alaska 30°

Wednesday, September 22, 1982

Fishermen Testify On Salmon Fishery

By BESSY LONGENBAUGH
Southeast fisherman provided some welcome laughter when he read a poem to the council. The poem, written by Dan Berce...

Hot Line
Residents in the Marine, Kaitlan and Andrews Street areas left their telephone service shortly after 9 a.m. today after a telephone phone line caught fire at the intersection of Marine Street and Tilgitt Way...

Candidates Campaign At Council Meeting

By Southeast Staff
The North Pacific Fisheries Management Council meeting became a political forum Tuesday for two gubernatorial candidates...

Salmon Harvest Crew Argument Offered As Cause for Boat Deaths

By Southeast Staff
Southeast fishermen sought more quota salmon this year than they have in any season since 1961, fisheries biologists told the Pacific Fisheries Management Council Tuesday...

Crew Leaves Oil Rig In Bering Sea

KODIAK, Alaska (AP) — All 20 crewmembers of a huge oil drilling rig drifted in the storm-swept Bering Sea were rescued Tuesday night...

Begin's Coalition Defeats Inquiry

By The Associated Press
Menachem Begin's Israeli government, using the resignation of a minister, narrowly defeated a parliamentary motion Tuesday for an inquiry into the Beirut refugee massacre...

SNEP Discussed by School Board

By LAWRENCE STAUSS
Despite $40,000 in federal budget cuts, the Sitka Native Education Program (SNEP) will offer quality programs to Sitka students this year...

Forecast

Rain through Thursday changing to showers Thursday afternoon. Southeast winds to 20 mph. Highs in the low 60s, lows in the mid 40s. Outlook, showers ending.

ALP Mill Shut Another Week

Due to weak market conditions, the ALP mill shutdown will be extended through Oct. 3, Industrial Relations Manager Mike Morris has announced...